INSPIRATIONAL CORNER

GOD THE MASTER BAKER

God will show you a cake, and when you say yes, that's what I want, God gives you a season of eggs, things just start breaking and cracking. Then God gives you a season of sugar, when things are nice and sweet. Then God gives you a season of flour, everything is dry, Friday night dry, incoming phone calls, dry. After the dry season God gives you a season of milk, a season of abundance.

Then we turn to God saying, "God what you showed me was a cake, you gave me eggs, I wanted cake. You then gave me milk, I wanted cake."

God says here's the deal, "I don't just bake cakes, I give you seasons that work together. If you just hang in there long enough, that milk season is going to mix with that dry season, that's going to mix with that egg season, and that will mix with that sugar season." If we just give God some time, He's baking something in our lives.

It is a shame a lot of blacks don't feel like America is their country. There are very few things that exist in this country that is not touched or influenced by blacks. Music, Dance, sports... we have been here since the beginning. Not only did we fight for our freedom like the original revolutionaries but we also had to fight for our equality. If you are an African American then you are as American as they come & should be proud to be so. The ideas that this country was built on... that it stands for,
is a great thing and black people & their struggle/influence has been a major contribution & example of these ideas. 01/13/2014
